ROLL OF LIBERTY LOAN BUYERS

LIBERTY LOAN GREATLY OVER SUBSCRIBED.

Due To Well Organized Liberty Loan Committees.

When the Liberty Loan committees started out to sell Crawford county's quota of war bonds, which was $25,000, they had little thought that the sale would amount to so much as it has. Up to Monday last there had been subscribed and filed with the Grayling and Frederic banks the sum of $30,000.

There is no doubt but that many of our people were all ready to buy and all that was necessary was that subscription blanks be placed in their hands. It took systematic work on the part of the committees and the result is that few if any adults were overlooked.

In the down town district two solicitors were appointed to work each block. They were selected by the board of trade. In the residence district where there were hundreds of homes to visit. The work was carried out by the Woman's Liberty loan committee of which Mrs. Olaf Michelson is chairman. Captains were selected for each fire district and these captains each selected a lady for each block in that district. Here is where the loans were not large but they were many. In most families the man of the house handles the money and if there are any government bonds to buy he is the one to do it. However in spite of this fact the ladies sold bonds amounting to $8,000. The work was so thorough that scarcely a home was overlooked, and the ladies are deserving full share of credit for the work done in this county.

In Frederic as well as in the townships outside of Grayling the campaigns were in the hands of the supervisors and they were assisted by citizens of their respective communities. Just the amounts subscribed by the residents of each township would be hard to determine as the subscriptions all passed thru one or the other of the banks in the county.

Up to the present time the records show that $38,550 have been subscribed, about $6,000 coming thru the Frederic bank from Frederic and Maple Forest residents.

THE HONOR ROLL.

Your Bond May Bring Him Home in Safety

The supreme tragedies of war are not enacted on the battlefield, but in the home.

Above the shouts of command and encouragement, the roar and shock of the great guns, and all the swelling tumult of battle which bear the husband and father to a hero's grave and a martyr's glory, there rise the weeping of the bereaved wife and the cries of little children deprived of a father's love and care.

American fathers are now on the battlefronts of France. Many must fall; how many depends upon us who remain safely at home.

A single Liberty Bond will help to save a soldier's life, your soldier's life, and bring him home in safety to those who hold his life far more precious than their own.

ALLIES DEMAND MORE CEREALS

American Meat Restrictions Relaxed to Effect Greater Wheat Savings.

ARGENTINE ARRIVALS SHORT.

Meat Supply Here Considerably Enlarged — Food Administration, However, Warns Against Waste.

The allies have made further and increased demands for breadstuffs, these enlarged demands being caused to some degree by shortage in arrivals from the Argentine. It is, therefore, necessary for the U. S. Food Administration to urge a still further reduction in the consumption of bread and breadstuffs generally if we are to meet our export necessities. The Food Administration has issued a statement explaining the situation in detail, particularly the reasons which lead it, for the purpose of centering effort for the time being upon the cereal situation to relax temporarily the restrictions on meat consumption.

Experience shows, this statement says, that the consumption of breadstuffs is intimately associated with the consumption of meat. For various reasons our supplies of meat for the next two or three months are considerably enlarged, and we can supply the allies with all of the meat products which transportation facilities render possible and at the same time somewhat increase our own consumption. In these circumstances the Food Administration considers it wise to relax the voluntary restrictions on meat consumption to some extent with a view to further decreasing bread consumption.

Conservation of food must be adjusted to meet necessities from time to time, for neither production, nor allied demands are constant factors, nor can any of these factors be anticipated for long periods in advance in the disturbed conditions in which we at present live. While the world situation is not one that warrants any relaxation in the efforts to eliminate waste or to relax economy in food, the Administration desires to secure better adjustment in food balances.

So long as the present conditions continue the only special restrictions we ask are the beefless and porkless Tuesday.

The meatless meal and the porkless Saturday are no longer asked.

The farmers of the United States are responding to the national call to increase hog production. Their increase, to all appearances, is being attained more rapidly. Of more immediate importance, however, are several complex factors which have effected an immediate increase in meat supplies.

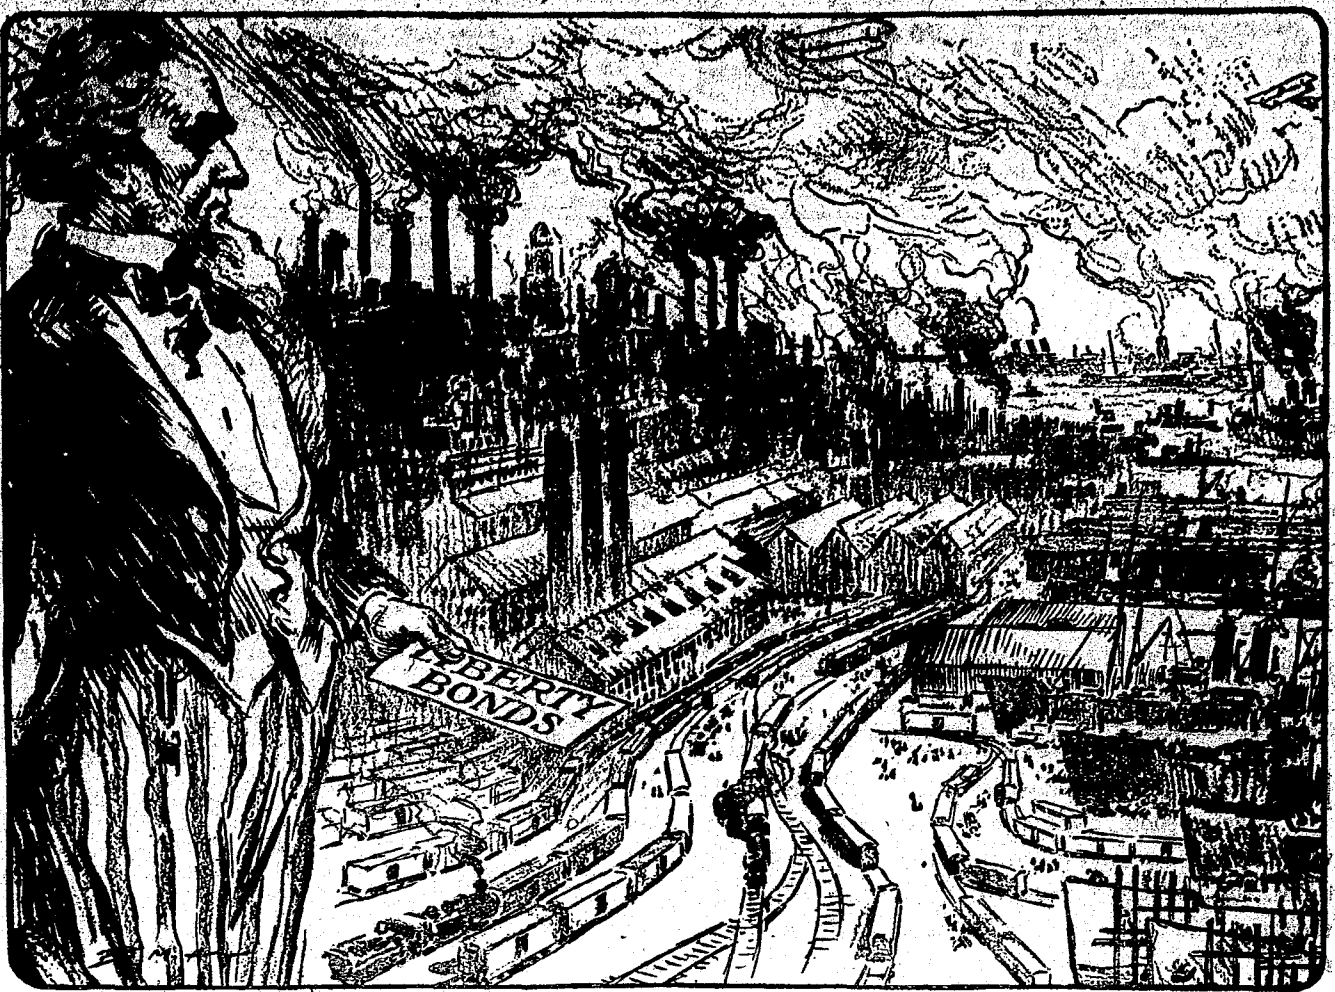

The transportation shortage before the government took over the railroads, the bad weather in January and early in February, the large percentage of immature corn in the last harvest and the necessity of feeding this corn as rapidly as possible to save it from decay, have not only resulted in backing up the animals—particularly hogs—on the farms for a longer period of feeding, but have resulted in a great increase in their average weight and will result, with improved transportation conditions, which already appear, in larger than normal arrivals at market for the next two or three months. The weight of hogs coming to the market for the past two weeks indicates an increase in weight of from an average of 203 pounds last year to the almost unprecedented average of 232 pounds, or a net increase in their meat value of over 15 per cent. This is a distinct addition to the nation's meat supply. It therefore now seems certain that we have such enlarged supplies for at least some months to come, that we can not only increase our exports to the allies to the full extent of their transportation facilities, but at the same time can properly increase our domestic consumption.

The response of the public to our requests for reduced consumption of meat during the past few months has been most gratifying, and this service alone has enabled the government during this period to provide such supplies as transportation to the allies permitted.

The Administration also suggests that in those parts of the country where the old fashioned home preservation of pork is still the custom, this practice should be extended at the present time, as it will relieve the burden upon transportation and to and from the packing houses and is economically sound as saving the cost of packing operations and at the same time will provide home supplies of pork to last over the months of decreased supplies.

The Food Administration desires to repeat that it does not want to give the impression that these are times when simplicity and moderation of living are not critically necessary, but that its sole desire is to secure an adjustment between our different food supplies and meet changing conditions from time to time and to keep the public fully and frankly advised of its position with the full confidence and reliance that whenever it becomes necessary renewed appeals for saving will meet the same loyal response as in the past.

Origin of Dover's Powder.
"Dover's powder," an old-fashioned remedy still to be found at most druggists, is named after Captain Dover, a worthy of the seventeenth century. Captain Dover's other claim to fame is that he rescued Alexander Selkirk, the castaway of the island of Juan Fernandez, and thus was instrumental in giving "Robinson Crusoe" to the world. Captain Dover practiced medicine in an independent way—chiefly on his own men—and in this way came to concoct the powder which bears his name.

Where Your Money Goes

WE are now building more naval and merchant ships than we have constructed in the last generation.

We are building a vast fleet of airplanes, and enormous supplies of artillery, motor trucks, machine guns, rifles and ammunition. We are feeding, clothing and training an army of a million men, and preparing for a million more. We have loaned billions of dollars to our allies to be spent in the United States.

From the shipyards of the Pacific to those of the Atlantic; on our farms and in our mines, mills and factories in every State in the Union; back of the firing lines in France, where men are training, camps are being erected and railroads built, billions upon billions are being expended for labor, for transportation, for materials and supplies of every description.

The mind can hardly conceive the sums of money required for our war preparations. Yet these expenditures are absolutely essential.

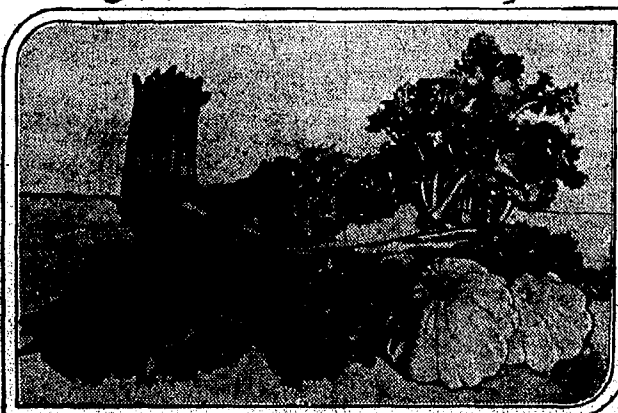

We must win the war quickly if possible; we must carry it on for years if necessary. We must do the job with American thoroughness, let the cost be what it may.

Remember, when you invest in your Liberty Bonds, that there is immediate, urgent, imperative need for every dollar you can spare.

Plan Your War Garden Now, Save Time and Money.

HELP INCREASE OUR EXPORT FOOD STOCKS
N CITY and country more war gardens are needed this year than ever before. Patriotism prompted 2,000,000 Americans to plant gardens last year, according to estimates of the United States Department of Agriculture. Transportation facilities of the nation will be strained this year hauling quantities of war and foods for the Allies. The surplus food created by home gardens will help in the railroad problem. And the nation will eat less of the goods we must export—wheat, meat, fats and sugar. Every boy and girl that helps with the garden is helping win the war. Letters of instruction in garden making may be secured from the Department of Agriculture at Washington, upon request, without charge.

Mr. Babcock is employed on the section in this city, and the young couple are making their home with Mr. Babcock's mother, for the present.

Mrs. Abraham J. Joseph and Mrs. T. W. Hanson were hostesses at a luncheon at Shoppeuagon's Inn, Saturday. In the center of the table was a large basket tied with tulle and filled with spring flowers; stretched from the basket to each place were pink and white ribbons at the ends of which were the place cards, also at each place were tiny satin bags of rice, the affair being a pre-nuptial party for Miss Louise Trevigno. A delicious four course luncheon was served. Before leaving the table the guests were asked to pull their ribbons and were delighted to find a corsage bouquet at the end of them. It was a most delightful affair.

An oil stove explosion in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Foland on Sunday street at about 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon set fire to the building and it burned to the ground. The fire was so hot that it drove the crowd of spectators across the street and when the fire department arrived the fire was beyond control. The house adjoining had started to burn and sparks were flying to other buildings. It looked as tho the whole block might be wiped out. The burning building made it a pretty hot for the firemen but they succeeded in saving the second building as well as all the others that were threatened. A frozen hydrant on Cedar street caused some delay to the fire department and it was only by good work after the hose was laid that the neighboring buildings were saved. The chemical engine seemed to have little effect on the fire, probably because of the big start the fire had gained before they arrived. The burned building was owned by O. Palmer and of course was insured.

Jackie Band Concert.

For several weeks Grayling people have been anxiously awaiting the arrival of the Jackie band of the Great Lakes Naval Training station. It was to be something new and different to have with us these sailor boys in blue and to listen to their patriotic music.

Wednesday was stormy and preparations were made to hold the concert in the high school gymnasium. Thru the efforts of our public spirited men seating capacity was furnished for about 900, but by eight o'clock every seat was occupied and the entire floor space filled with people eagerly awaiting the arrival of the Jackies.

At nine forty-five amid a storm of applause Chairman T. W. Hanson together with Frederic W. Fenton, chairman director of sales of Liberty Loan of Michigan, W. S. Stanton, local district organizer, James A. McLaughlin, general organizer of eastern Michigan, and Arthur Vandenberg, editor of the Grand Rapids Herald, accompanying the band, the marines filed to the front of the gym and took their places. At once The Star Spangled Banner was struck up and the immense crowd rose as one person and caught the spirit of our National air. After two other selections by the band our local chairman, Mr. Hanson, introduced the speaker of the evening, Mr. Arthur Vandenberg of Grand Rapids who gave a most splendid and convincing address.

Mr. Fenton was unable to give an address owing to voice strain, from talking so much in the open air. Mr. Hanson asked the crowd to give Mr. Fenton a hand, which they did, and which was graciously received by him.

A squad of the sailor boys gave a drill which showed the splendid training they are receiving. The band then gave another selection after which our chairman thanked the people of the city and county for their splendid co-operation and announced that everyone was invited to remain for the dance given in honor of the boys in blue.

All in attendance at the entertainment were surely filled with patriotism and loyalty and we feel sure that the mission of the coming of the Jackie band to our city was fulfilled and their visit will long be remembered.

From The Food Administrator.

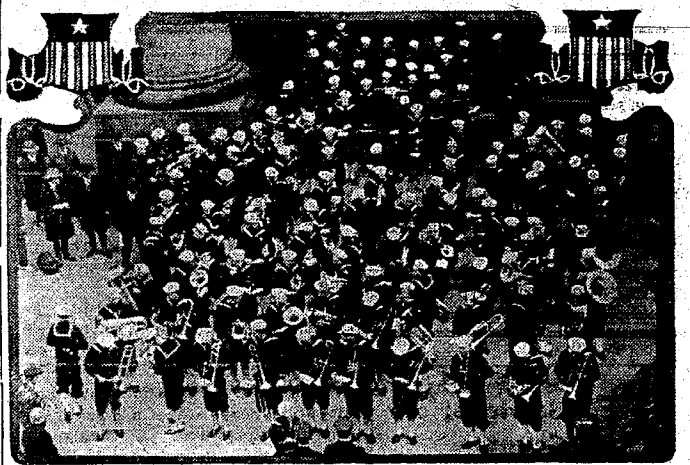

Today there is not enough food in the world to feed all the people and have any left to waste. Waste food and you are wasting lives.

Be cheerful. Mental depression checks digestion. Poor digestion wastes food. Wasted food helps the enemy. Cheerfulness is therefore conservation.

America must feed her associates in this war. They are no longer able to feed themselves, and unless we come to the rescue, they are face to face with starvation. Starvation for them means defeat for us. Don't waste food. Conserve.

Get a real taste of war by conserving food "till it hurts." Going without dessert for a week at a time; or eating a slice or two less of bread a day may hurt a little, but remember it's a life or a limb the boys at the front are risking. Painless patriotism won't hurt much. Cut down on wheat and sweets until it hurts.

Germany's greatest ally is the false belief in the United States, that the war will be short. Face the grim facts. Prepare in your own home, in your business and in your community, for a long, determined struggle. That is the only way to shorten the war and do your full part toward winning it.

Mr. Hoover has asked for teamwork. If you are riding a hobby horse, climb down off it until the war is over. All your energies are needed in the big fight against Prussianism. All other crusades can wait. Don't give aid and comfort to the enemy by stirring up strife, even in a good cause, when you should be back of your government heart and soul, instead of embarrassing it with internal turmoil. Let's all give Mr. Hoover the teamwork he wants. Remember we are fighting a country whose teamwork is perfect and compulsory.

A sweetheart's flag has been approved by government officials. It is a white field with a red heart in the center. The order positively states that not more than one girl shall sport a flag for the same soldier boy in the service, but does not limit the number of hearts each maiden shall have sowed upon her flag. Unequal rights again, with the odds in favor of the gentler sex.—Ex.

Back Up the Boys.

BY CARL W. ACKERMAN, FAMOUS WAR CORRESPONDENT, WHO RESIDED IN GERMANY SEVERAL YEARS.

As far as I have been able to observe in Spain, France and Switzerland the outcome of the great war depends upon the United States. The military situation to-day is critical. All of Europe is awaiting a German offensive which will continue several weeks and perhaps months. This I believe will be the last great attack which Germany will be able to make against our European allies. We may and we must not have to take part in these operations, but when this offensive ends the United States will be called upon to deal the last blow.

The success of our operation depends not only upon our splendid Army, but more upon the backing this Army receives at home. The morale of our troops depends upon the determination and earnestness of the American people. And, this determination must be expressed in some definite manner. Spain, France, and Switzerland are watching the United States to see what the people do, because it is realized in Europe that the American people themselves determine what their Government and Army shall do.

The two Liberty Loan in the United States have been very successful, but to my mind Liberty Loans are not to be measured by the amount subscribed, alone. The essential thing is that millions of American show that they are back of the Army by subscribing. I think that more than ten million Americans should subscribe to the third loan, and if they do the moral effect in Europe and in our Expeditionary Forces will be tremendous.

And, last but not least, the enemy is watching that loan as carefully as it is watching our preparations, because the enemy knows that the success of our fighting will depend upon the determination of men and women "back home."

Leo Jorgenson Writes From France.

Somewhere in France, Mar. 22, '18

Dear Mr. Schumann,
As we have a little time I'll try and tell you about our trip across the ocean and in this part of the country. We cannot mention any town we were in, so it will be only "somewhere in France."

We were eight days crossing the ocean. When we got on the boat we received a card stating, "You will occupy one hammock." Don't think there were any of us who wanted any more than one of them anyway. We landed "somewhere in England," were in camp there a few days then crossed into France. We were in a camp there only one night, then we started on our trip through the country for some other camp.

When we were in England we traveled in coaches. Their coaches are nothing like the ones in the U. S. Their coaches have side doors. There are six compartments and each compartment holds eight men. We traveled as third class passengers. Their engines are not as large as the ones in the U. S.

Our trip through France lasted about eighteen hours. We traveled in box cars. Their box cars here are about fourteen feet long. Two men can push one of them most anywhere. We did see some fine country.

We are in barracks here, without any floor or windows. Use cloth for window light.

The only thing that I can see that this country is ahead of the U. S. in is the time. We are about six hours ahead of the U. S. France is one hour ahead of England.

Dyer was made Corp. while we were in England. We are having fine weather for this time of the year and have no snow. Have not had any mail yet. The last mail we got was in the U. S. almost five weeks ago. We look for the day to come when we can get some mail and the paper.

There are not very many of us who can speak French. So when we want anything we have to point out what we want. Most of us have a French book so we get along fairly well.

We are all on the outside sunning ourselves. Last night some of the boys sat outside and read until about eight o'clock, so you can imagine what kind of weather we are having.

As we cannot write anything about the camp I think I will close.

Yours truly,
Leo Jorgenson.

County Board of Supervisors Organized for 1918-19.

The newly elected members of the board of supervisors assembled at the court house last Monday afternoon and it happened that there were no new faces in the group. Every supervisor who served last year had been returned by the people of their respective townships.

They proceeded to organize and elected Melvin A. Bates chairman for the third successive time. The latter was anxious that that honor be conferred upon one of the other members but he was unanimously re-elected except for his own vote.

The board finished their work and adjourned yesterday. The proceedings of the session will be printed at an early date in this paper.

School Notes

"This with our judgments, as our watches none go just alike, yet each believes his own." Pope.

A very interesting plant has found its way into the Agricultural class. It is a "Pitcher Plant," which is one of the few plants which live upon small insects. The flowers are so shaped as to form a trap for any unwary fly or bug which ventures to enter.

During the presentation of "The Beast of Berlin" in Detroit, one person so far lost control of himself as to shoot at the film! Don't miss this wonderfully realistic picture.

If you are interested in the size of the angles which the wheels of your car generate, ask the trigonometry class. They are learning to measure angles of any magnitude.

Considerable amusement was aroused in typewriting classes when the following was given as speed test: What is a kiss? Here you are:

A kiss is a peculiar proposition, of no use to one, yet absolute bliss to two. The small boy gets it for nothing, the youth has to steal it, and the old man has to buy it. It is the baby's right, the lover's privilege, the hypocrite's mask. To a young girl, faith; to a married woman, hope; and to an old maid, charity.

The teacher in French class asked one of her students what kind of bread she ate, and she replied, "ge mange pain blanc;" not meaning to be unpolite; but another very patriotic pupil shrieked out in protest, "Mon madame aisselle, je ne mange pas pain blanc, je mange pain guerre." "I eat war bread."

If any of the townspeople would like to know the volume of their coal bins, they should get the solid geometry class to measure them. They are experts in the business, and furthermore, they can prove why it is possible to find the volume in a certain way.

The chemistry class had a Fourth of July celebration the other day in the laboratory. They burned barium and strontium, the chief constituents of the red and green fire. They also experimented with "plaster of Paris."

The type-writing students have been having great fun this week making copies of the Junior play, "The Girls Over Here."

The Senior high school have been diligently using their moments at the reading table; for at any time they are liable to meet Mr. Quizy, who will insist upon their discussing current events.

Emerson Bates is away taking another entrance examination for Annapolis.

The English literature class believes that they have at least located the originator of all the trouble over woman suffrage. They refer all who are interested, to Mary Wollstonecraft, who wrote, "The vindication of the rights of women," way back in the time of Scot.

The High school orchestra will appear on the Friday afternoon program.

The senior class play, "The mousetrap" will be put on at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The ninth grade English class will soon begin the study of Scott's "Lady of the Lake."

Read the "Gallic Wars" and you will see that Caesar was much more humane than the Kaiser altho he lived before the Christian era.

"The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin" will be presented at the Opera house, Friday May 3rd, under the auspices of the Senior class. Come out and see it.

The physical geography class made a trip to the river last week, and for various reasons decided that the stream was very old.

The High school too, has a Kaiser in the building. Nobody will be prosecuted for throwing mud at him.

Frederic School Notes.

Elmer Burke of Elmira visited the high school Tuesday.

Ruth Edmunds, Gertrude Bigham, Irma Craven and Mae McDermid are planning to take the teachers' examination next week.

We want to correct the writup in regard to ball game between Grayling and Frederic. The headline was reversed; Frederic won by a score of 2 to 6. Also there was no Sunday game scheduled. We are, however, ready to meet the same team again at any other date. War.

Every member of the Savings Stamp society—Khaki quarters—bought stamps Friday morning. See Morey Abrahams, Pres., at any time or leave your money with Miss Paris.

The Junior Red Cross buttons were passed out one day this week. All members are anxious to go to work.

Edward McDermid, who is home on furlough, will tell of his work at Great Lakes, Friday morning at school.

The fourth and fifth grades are making a study of Old Glory, making flag booklets.

Francis Hunter is back in school after about three months illness. We are all glad to have him with us again.

The chart class and first grade are dramatizing "The Robbers," in language work.

We have four new little pupils; Jack Callahan, Elizabeth Burkhardt, Leo Kalahar and Lyle Merry.

The primary room children are learning some new spring songs.

Vegetable Dishes Neglected By Best Cooks.

If food saving does nothing else than call the attention of the American people to the wealth of vegetables available for their diet, it will have been well worth while.

Probably no other country in the world has such a range of vegetables and fruits, for our climate makes it possible to grow everything, from the cool weather staples, such as cabbage, cauliflower, and garden peas, to the rarer tropical delicacies.

Besides having most of the staple fresh vegetables available all year round, through the development of winter trucking in California and the South, we possess dainties of our own unknown elsewhere, such as sweet corn, and have widened our range of delicacies, like melons, by importation of varieties, cross breeding, adaptation to favorable localities, and development of long-distance shipping facilities to put them into every consuming market.

The average American has to go abroad and live a few weeks on the comparatively narrow range of vegetables in a country like England to appreciate fully the advantages he may enjoy at home. For English vegetables comprise only about half a dozen, such as green peas, beans, and vegetable marrow in summer, and leeks and cabbages in winter.

But there is a world of room in this country for improvement in both the growing and cooking of vegetables. Coarse and tasteless varieties are too often raised for marketing, and arrive in unpalatable condition because of careless shipping methods, and vegetables are too often served stingily or with careless cooking, especially in our hotels and restaurants, where the whole scheme of the bill of fare centers on meat dishes, and vegetables are neglected.

The attention of hotel and restaurant men, as well as the housewife, is invited to the following pithy suggestions from Through the Meshes, a little monthly periodical published by a Cleveland business house:

"The ability of a cook has too long been judged on the basis of meats and pastries.

"Anyone who could broil a chop, roast a leg of mutton, fry a slice of ham, and bake a pie got a job as chef—and no question asked about vegetables.

"But the real test of a chef is mashed potatoes. Order mashed potatoes in the average hotel and you will get what looks like soaked bread—and tastes worse.

"For several months I have made a point of asking for three or four vegetables in restaurants in all parts of the country, frequently eating a meal without meat. In the best hotel restaurants the vegetables are uniformly well cooked, but in the great majority of the medium-grade restaurants, and even the medium restaurants in smaller towns, the chefs do not seem to take vegetables seriously.

"Ask for a steak and you will get a palatable dish; ask for spinach and you will probably get something that looks like soup and tastes like wet hay.

"In the metropolitan cities, a few of the popular restaurants are making a specialty of vegetables—cooking them scientifically to preserve their flavor.

"For instance, in a New York eating house I saw these signs prominently displayed on the walls:

"Squash, onions, cabbage, cauliflower, potatoes, Brussel sprouts, spinach, yellow turnips. We steam to retain all their mineral food ingredients—natural delicious flavor. Carrots, parsnips, lima beans, green peas, white turnips, string beans are cooked in just enough water for serving—and preserve all their food properties."

"This appeared to be an indication that vegetables are beginning to get attention they deserve. In these days when the Government is calling upon us to eat lightly of meat and grain, it would be a good thing if we became better acquainted with vegetables.

Eat one meal a day of vegetables, exclusively. The habit will be good for your health and good for your country."

Eldorado Nuggets.

Daniel Harrison Williams arrived Sunday from Camp Custer for a five day furlough.

W. W. Henderson of Lapeer is here for a few days looking after his real estate interests.

About fifty people attended the dancing party Tuesday evening given by Mrs. Mattie Funch at her home in honor of Harry Williams, who returns to Camp Custer Friday.

The rain Tuesday brought greatly appreciated relief from the forest fires that have raged around here for the past week. The whole neighborhood was out all day Saturday and Sunday. Conrad Wehnes came near losing his buildings, and several vacant buildings were threatened, but by great effort all were saved.

The Misses Effie and Emma Sherman and brother, Merrell, of Maple Forest were guests at the party Tuesday evening.

John Hartman moved onto what is known as the old Henry Hartman farm, last week.

Card of Thanks.

We hereby publicly extend our thanks to the firemen who saved our home from burning Sunday afternoon during the fire on Norway street, during our absence.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM DUCKLOS.

All women are urged to register early in the week.

Report of Demonstrations.

The following is a report of the demonstrations as carried on by Miss Helen Arms of the Agricultural college at the school house March 26 and 27, arranged and compiled by Miss Isa Granger, a student of the Commercial class. The report was taken down in shorthand and typewritten ready for the press by Miss Granger.

II. ENERGY BUILDERS.

a. Proteins are absolutely the only source of nitrogen.

b. Carbohydrates, which is really sugar and starch.

Cereals furnish starch and dried fruits furnish sugar. Sugar is necessary. When foods do not have sugar the body craves for it. Sugar should be given as a dessert. We should not make or eat candy made of sugar when our soldiers over there need it. Not only the soldiers over there are working for us but the women and children also. Do not think it is a private affair of your own, that you will not give up your own source of sweets. Because we have molasses, honey and dried fruits that will serve that purpose as well as the sugar that can be transported. Many people are making candy of fruits. One of the biggest firms, the Mary Elizabeth company, are using only syrups and fruits. In cake recipes you can substitute syrups for sugar, but use one fourth less than the amount originally called for. If it calls for one cup use three fourths of a cup. When using honey you need only one fourth to one half teaspoon of soda. When using Caro syrup add a little more flavor. You may use orange or spices for flavoring.

c. Fats. There are two types of fats called animal and vegetable. The animal fats contain vitamins. The vegetable fats do not. In the kitchen you can substitute vegetable fats for animal fats, but do not on the table. Buy only animal fats.

Vitamins were discovered when some men were experimenting with food for chickens. They cooked the food and this destroyed the vitamins. When they fed the chickens the food they died. The absolute lack of the vitamins caused the death of the chickens.

You can conserve by saving all the meat trimmings and trying them out and using the fat for cooking. Cut up the trimmings and soak over night in cold water. Then put them in the upper part of the boiler. This does not brown them. Do not use the fat that you can use for food in the making of soap. Avoid the waste of fat by using it for frying or pastry.

III. REGULATORS.

Three classes of food.

a. Mineral food. Use when you have spring fever.

b. Water.

c. Vitamins.

Fruit is important because of the cellulose. It is present in all fruits. This cellulose is not digestible. It stimulates the intestines. They eliminate the waste. It acts as a broom to the intestines.

You should eat acid producing foods to keep the body normal. Acid causes some rheumatism. Rice and meat furnish too much acid, but rice and tomatoes are good together.

Do not cover vegetables tight, let the gas escape. Do not add too much soda in cooking vegetables.

Milk is a great food. A child should have a quart of milk each day. Milk contains protein, calcium and vitamins and therefore is an excellent food. Use milk as a food, not as a beverage. Milk forms clots when it enters the stomach, due to the substance called rennin.

Eggs are not expensive at five cents apiece. Eggs should be carefully prepared. Do not cook too much. The white of an egg is pure protein.

Cereals are splendid food. Oat meal is a good cereal when cooked at least one hour in a double boiler.

MARCH 27, 1918.

FORENOON—WAR BREAD.

There is nothing hard to learn in making war bread. Some war breads are not fine and white, but if they are made correctly they will be so. It is not necessary to learn new recipes. Substitute at least one fourth of the different substitutes. You can set your sponge the same as you always do. It takes about four cups of flour for one loaf of bread. Use one cup of substitute or, if you want, you may substitute two cups or one half the amount called for. Do not use wheat flour for thickening. Use corn starch. Graham is not a substitute as it is the whole wheat. Use corn breads and other hot breads on wheatless days. Rye is not now considered a substitute as it has been made possible to ship it across. Barley flour is going to be used more to take its place.

RICE BREAD.

1 cup of cooked rice; 2 cups of wheat flour.

With 1 cup of wheat flour in the sponge you have 3 cups of wheat to 1 of substitute, making  $\frac{1}{4}$  substitute.

CORN BREAD.

1 cup of corn meal, after being cooked or soaked; 2 cups of white flour; - (use about 1½ instead of 2 cups); 1 cup of white flour in sponge.

POTATO BREAD.

1 cup of potato. Use mashed potatoes and pack them into a cup. 2 cups of white flour; 1 cup of white flour in sponge.

Mix in the flour in the potato bread until it is very stiff and you cannot possibly work any more in.

Recipe of sponge used in one loaf of bread:

1 teaspoon of salt; 1 teaspoon of sugar; 1 teaspoon of fat; 1 cup of liquid (potato water); 1 cup of white

Revised Rules Governing Sugar

PRICES:

GRANULATED SUGAR (bulk) should retail for not to exceed 9c per pound—this will allow the seller about 3-4c per pound profit over delivered cost.

BROWN SUGAR (bulk) should sell for a price which does not exceed the retail price of (bulk) granulated sugar.

SPECIAL STICKS, like cylinder, domino, cubes, pulverized, etc., should be sold at a price which will give the retailer only a normal pre-war profit.

QUANTITIES:

On account of the supply of sugar available, it will be necessary for the retailers to sell only a limited amount to his customers.

1. Not to exceed two to five pounds to a family residing in town and from five to ten pounds to a family residing in the country is the limit.

2. The customers' distance from the market as well as the size of the family should be taken into consideration.

3. The larger consumers of sugar, like hotels, restaurants, and boarding houses, should be supplied in proportion to the limit placed on families.

FOOD ADMINISTRATOR PRESCOTT SAYS

Raise chickens and help win the war. The early hatch chickens are the most profitable.

The keeping of a small flock of laying hens by every family in suburban districts and city homes having small back yards would do much to maintain our army and feed the people at home. It would be a practical way of reducing home expenses and regulating the cost of living.

Two to three hens for each person in the household should keep a family supplied with eggs. An average flock of ten birds for every family in the United States would mean 200,000,000 hens and would produce 1,500,000 eggs a year. A flock of ten hens can be maintained from waste from table and garden of the average family.

SUGAR FOR HOUSEWIVES

FOOD ADMINISTRATION PROMISES SUFFICIENT SUPPLY FOR CANNING SEASON.

Essential Food Products Will Be Provided for in Sugar Allotment—No Change in Price.

Lansing—Michigan housewives and manufacturers of essential food products will be able to procure sufficient sugar for their needs during the approaching fruit and vegetable canning season, it was announced by Federal Food Administrator George A. Prescott, following a telegram from the United States Food Administration at Washington, dealing with the subject. Packers of condensed milk, fruits, and such vegetables as need sugar for their preservation, will also be supplied with sufficient sugar to insure normal output, it was announced. Some apprehension had been felt by the canners and preservers of these commodities because of the sugar shortage of the past few months.

In its telegram to Federal Food Administrator Prescott the Food Administration said:

"Regarding sugar supplies for the manufacturers of essential food products and appreciating the necessity of both production and preservation of food supplies as well as reflecting the policy of the Food Administration as bearing on collateral industries, such as manufacturers of essential food products are hereby advised that they will be able to obtain their necessary requirements of sugar for the coming season. This applies to packers of fruit, condensed milk and vegetables needing sugar for preservation purposes and to housewives canning their own products. When a shortage is relieved supplies of sugar will be available for all necessary preservation purposes. Sugar shipments from Cuba are steadily increasing."

The above ruling does not open the door to an increased supply of sugar for confection manufacturing, which is classed as a non-essential. Confectioners now get 80 per cent of their normal requirements.

What Will Win!

What will win the war? What will give America the victory she is fighting for?

McAdoo says money will win.

Hoover says food will win.

Garfield says coal will win.

Schwab says labor will win.

Daniels says warships will win.

The President says the farmers will win.

Hurley says transports will win.

Aviators say airplanes will win.

All and more are necessary, but all of these and all the people of the nation must pull together in one strong pull for victory.

The people in all lines of activity will win the war by co-operation of all the vast resources of the country—by the united, patriotic and unselfish energy of a great nation.

There will be honor enough for all.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

WILL PUNISH FLOUR HOARDERS

National Food Administration Plans Survey of Country's Supply.

The first indication of a systematic effort on the part of the food administration to seek out and punish the hoarder of flour is shown in a report from the national food administration that they will shortly issue orders for a survey of the flour supply of the country.

The survey it is indicated will require every individual to give an account of the amount of flour he has on hand on a certain date.

The food administration regulations permit an individual or a commercial concern to have no more than a 30-day supply of wheat flour on hand at any time and persons will more than that amount are in violation of the hoarding act which means serious punishment if convicted.

The state food administration has announced that it will not be disposed to act harshly with individuals who voluntarily report surplus and show a willingness to be fair now and get the flour into the regular channels of trade. Where a hoarder attempts to conceal the fact and forceful measures are necessary to secure information concerning a supply, prosecution will undoubtedly follow.

Wheat Guarantee Extends To June 1, 1919

The schedule of guaranteed prices for wheat assures the farmer of a reasonable profit even if the War should end within a year and the large stores of grain in those sections of the world now cut off from transportation should again come into competition with his products.

The guarantee applies to wheat harvested in the United States during 1918 and offered for sale before June 1, 1919, at any of the 25 specified markets.

Both Good and Easy.

Wretched is the worker who has retired permanently from active life, for his accumulated fortune cannot give succor from the woe of old age. Miserable is the woman whose sudden fortune has exempted her from the need of attention to pleasant household cares. If you would be happy banish unhappy memories. Recollect the good in men and forget the bad. Be as virtuous as you possibly can and busy yourself about something.—Exchange.

You are asked to spend wisely—to buy only the things honestly needed to maintain your health and efficiency. This is intelligent thrift. The Government asks it of you as a war measure :

Bonds Are Not A Burden, But A Blessing

Thrift requires the exercise of restraint and self-denial—qualities without which you cannot achieve the success in life which it is your ambition to achieve and for the lack of which you are likely to suffer in later years.

The money you acquire by thrift you are asked to loan—not give—to your country. It will come back to you when you may need it far more than you do now, and you will be paid interest for its use.

This war is a frightful thing, but it may prove of inestimable benefit to you, if it teaches you the good habit of thrift.

EVERYONE MUST HELP.

Wars cannot be fought without money, and upon the Treasury centers every financial demand upon the Nation.

The rich of this country cannot alone meet the needs of the Nation; the men of the country cannot do it alone; the women of the country cannot do it alone; but all of us, the people of the United States, disregarding partisanship, forgetting selfish interests, thinking only of the supremacy of right and determining to vindicate the majesty of American ideals and secure the safety of America and civilization, can do the great and splendid work which God has called upon us to do.

W. G. McADOO,
Secretary of the Treasury.

A Silly Question.

When the bicycle was at the height of its popularity one of the comic papers had a squib in which a neighbor was represented as asking of a five-year-old, "Can your baby sister walk yet, Johnny?" "Walk?" responded Johnny, scornfully, "I should say not. She can't even ride a bicycle yet."

BEST IN THE LONG RUN

A Message from America's Roads

SECURE certainty of service in Tested Tires. They give sure service because it is proven service. Their endurance and mileage have been proved in the one way to assure mileage to the motorist, on the car on the road.

Hearken to that 1918 message, the roads of America send American motorists. Last year Goodrich, launching six Test Car Fleets in six widely different regions of our country, took Goodrich Tires, and with light and heavy cars, mauled them over sand, gravel and rock roads of plains, deserts and mountains, to try out—

GOODRICH TESTED TIRES

What those tires endured doubled Goodrich's pride in its tires. They fought America's roads through 4,178,744 tire miles. They conquered the roads of America in that phenomenal mileage, those BLACK SAFETY TREADS and SILVERTOWN CORDS.

Let American motorists listen to this message from America's roads. It means time and money saved them. They get lasting service with the tires that have won the title, "America's Tested Tires."

THE PATH TO VICTORY

LIBERTY BONDS pave the way to VICTORY in war, — an early, complete, triumphant VICTORY. If we are to win the war abroad we must first learn to spend wisely, to abandon luxury, and invest every dollar we possibly can in the bonds which provide the materials and equipment without which the war cannot be won.

The Boys Thank the Citizens for Orate and Off.

Camp Custer, April 4, 1918
Melvin A. Bates, Grayling, Mich.
Dear Sir:
I suppose you must be getting anxious to hear from the boys, if you haven't heard from already. I expect very likely you have as we were going to write a sort of company letter on the way down to thank the people of Grayling for the great send-off, and also Mr. Hanson for what he did for the boys. Everything, I think, was greatly appreciated.

I guess I will have to close for this time as I expect by the way things are acting, we will get a little training in a few minutes. Give my regards to all.

Clyde Smith, Camp Custer,
8th Co., 2nd Brigade, 160 Depot Bldg.

Can Live With Wheatless Diet.

You can live on a wheatless diet without the slightest injury to your health.

Health experts are authority for this statement.

Dr. Allen W. Freeman, Health Commissioner of Ohio, formerly with the U. S. Public Health service, says, "We can eliminate wheat from our diet from now until the next harvest without endangering our health in the slightest. We should be careful, however, to have a balanced ration."

Eat plenty of potatoes and fresh vegetables.

Milk and eggs, now plentiful, should also be used freely. You can use them in making the quick breads with cornmeal and the other wheat flour substitutes.

Our Pilgrim fathers lived entirely without wheat; they used corn meal. Surely no one would say they were weaklings.

Remember this—our soldiers and our Allies cannot use corn meal. It cannot be shipped to them because it spoils in transit.

Make Complaints Direct to Health Officer.

Request is hereby made that anyone having matters concerning the public health to report that these reports be made direct to me, and that no underhand methods be taken to get matters before the officers. Prompt action will be taken if such matters are reported to the health officer.

John S. Harrington.

TESTED AND PROVEN.

There is Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Grayling readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. What other remedy ever produced such convinced proof of merit?

Ed. G. Clark, band, Citizens' Band, Cedar St., Grayling, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results. When my back has been weak or lame or the kidneys secretion have been irregular in passage, I have used a box or so of Doan's Kidney Pills and they have never failed to cure me of one attack. I advise anyone to get Doan's Kidney Pills at Lewis' Drug Store, if troubled with their kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Clark had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound in the ears, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free.

Mortgage Sale.

Default having been made in the conditions of a certain real estate mortgage (wherein the power of sale therein contained has become operative) executed by Thomas J. Merz, a widower, of the township of Grayling, Crawford county, Michigan, to Hubbard Head, of Roscommon county, Michigan, dated May 3, 1909, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Crawford county, Michigan, on May 7, 1913, in Liber H. of Mortgages on page 158, and upon which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the date hereof the sum of $266.31; and no suit or proceeding having been instituted at law to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

Therefore, under the power of sale therein contained, notice is hereby given that the said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the mortgaged premises at public vendue to the highest bidder on May 31, 1918, at one o'clock in the afternoon, at the southerly front door of the court house in the village of Grayling, Michigan, (that being the place of holding the circuit court within the county in which the premises to be sold are situated), to satisfy said mortgage with interest and legal costs. ### If I Were a Farmer.

If I were a farmer I would keep at hand a few reliable medicines for minor ailments that are not so serious as to require the attention of a physician, such as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for cough, colds and croup.

Chamberlain's Liniment for sprains, bruises and rheumatic pains.

Chamberlain's Tablets for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation.

By having these articles at hand it would often save the trouble of a trip to town in the busiest season or in the night, and would enable me to treat slight ailments as soon as they appear, and thereby avoid the more serious diseases that so often follow.

Notice to Dog Owners.

On and after April 15, the dog tax law will be strictly enforced, and all dogs not wearing license tags will be disposed of according to law.
